

East Washington Pasadena Restaurants

A Complete Neighborhood Dining Guide

East Washington Boulevard is one of Pasadena's most quietly rewarding dining corridors. This guide highlights the restaurants that give the street its character—places locals return to for breakfast, lunch, dinner, and relaxed evenings out.

Millie's Café

Classic breakfast and comfort-driven lunch plates. Generous portions and a true neighborhood feel.

<https://www.milliescafela.com>

Lavender & Honey Espresso Bar

High-quality espresso drinks, pastries, and sandwiches. Ideal for casual meetings or grab-and-go.

<https://lavenderandhoneyespresso.com>

Woon Kitchen

Homestyle Chinese comfort food inspired by family recipes and seasonal ingredients.

<https://www.woonkitchen.com>

The Monta Factory

Armenian and Middle Eastern specialties served simply and well.

<https://www.yelp.com/biz/the-monta-factory-pasadena>

Torino's Sandwiches

Mediterranean-style sandwiches and hearty plates with bold flavors.

<https://www.yelp.com/biz/torinos-sandwiches-pasadena>

Frankfurter Guys

German-style döner and sausages—an unexpected and fun stop.

<https://frankfurterguys.com>

786 Degrees Pizza

Creative pizzas balanced with classic crowd-pleasers.

<https://www.786degrees.com>

Domenico's Italian Restaurant

Old-school Italian comfort with decades of local loyalty.

<https://www.domenicositalianrestaurant.com>

The Italian Deli Co.

Italian sandwiches, pasta, and pantry items for lunch or takeout.

<https://theitaliandeli.co>

Connal's

Pasadena institution for burgers, sandwiches, fries, and shakes.

<https://theconnals.com>

Burrito Express

Straightforward Mexican food built for speed and value.

<https://burritoexpresspasadena.com>

El Matador Authentic Mexican Food

Classic Mexican dishes with a loyal neighborhood following.

<https://www.yelp.com/biz/el-matador-authentic-mexican-food-pasadena>

Bacchus' Kitchen + Wine Bar

Seasonal small plates and a thoughtful wine list.

<https://www.bacchuskitchen.com>

Deluxe 1717

New American cuisine with global touches, brunch and dinner service.

<https://www.visitpasadena.com/directory/deluxe-1717>

1881 Bar

Cocktails, jazz nights, and late-evening energy.

<https://www.1881pasadena.com>

Living well in Pasadena is often about proximity—being close to good food, walkable streets, and neighborhoods that feel connected. East Washington delivers all three.